Affirmative Action Program

The University Corporation, San Francisco State is an active participant in the Affirmative Action Program at San Francisco State University. The program provides a structure within which the University community will expand its efforts toward the goal of increased ethnic minority and female representation at all levels of employment. In order to evaluate our progress each Corporation employee is offered this opportunity for voluntary self-identification of his / her ethnic group. Completion of this form is voluntary, but you are required to return the form with your name and signature even if you choose not to specify your ethnic group.
